The conference venue is in Barbican very close to Barbican and Farringdon tube stations, the hotels above are located in and around the area. The rates displayed provide you with an indication of the hotels base rate, however many hotels do online special offers and discounts. We would advise that you check the online rate as well as speak to the hotels before securing your booking. We would also advise that you book early as many hotels offer early booking deals. These are often non-refundable and non-adjustable but offer a better rate.

The hotel closest to the conference venue is the Thistle City Barbican. We have an arrangement with them so if you wish to stay at this hotel please quote the reference AFRUCA.
