

Africans Unite Against Child Abuse
invites you to an African Community Meeting

'Africans in London: Working Together to Safeguard Trafficked Children'

OUR CHILDREN, OUR RESPONSIBILITY

'Child trafficking has become a major problem in the UK. Various agencies working with children, including AFRUCA, are concerned about the high numbers of African children involved. This meeting will discuss the problem of child trafficking in London and the role of the African community in addressing it.'

Date: Thursday 13 July 2006

Time: 6:00pm – 8:30pm

Venue: The Africa Centre, 38 King Street
Covent Garden, London WC2E

Event Chair

Dr Adotey Bing
Director of Africa Centre

Presentations

Detective Sergeant Andy Johnson
Kent Police (based at Dover Port)

Chris Beddoe

(ECPAT) End Child Prostitution, Child Pornography and
the Trafficking of Children for Sexual Purposes

Detective Chief Superintendent Peter Spindler
Metropolitan Police (MET) Operation Paladin Child

Debbie Ariyo (Director, AFRUCA)

Presentation on the trafficking of African children in the UK

Working for a safer London

Contact Elvina Quaison,
Child Advocacy Officer (AFRUCA)
elvina@afruca.org

Admission is free and dinner will be served, participation is strictly by registration only.
Please contact AFRUCA to book your place at the event

Tel: 020 7704 2261 Fax: 020 7704 2266 Web: www.afruca.org