

Special Event for African Parents in Hackney

AFRUCA is a charity promoting the welfare of African children in the UK. In celebration of the day of the African Child we are holding a special, walk-in event for African parents in Hackney.

- Do you want to know more about child protection in Hackney?
- Do you need support and assistance dealing with children's services?
- Do you need advice on parenting?

Then come to our Child Protection Advice Roadshow for African parents and see us.

Date: Saturday 21 June 2008

Time: 10am-4pm

Venue: London Borough of Hackney Town Hall

Room 102, Mare Street, London, E8 1EA

The event will include workshops on child protection, advice surgeries for parents, free books and other publications on children's issues. Refreshments & lunch will be provided.

For further information please contact Oumou at AFRUCA on 0207 7042261 or email Oumou@afruca.org. This event is being held in collaboration with the Hackney Community Partnership Team.
